

Faith No More

Capdown

Oh, you think it's right when you see the reaction
Some say a small sacrifice, yeah
Oh, but the consequence of your actions hold a much higher price
'Cause what is going on

Is just a slower wrong
Joe's re-blinded by a smile on a different face
And what is going on
Will lead to greater wrong

'Cause you're just part of the same
Some say a move in the right direction
But I still fail to see
How the consequence of your actions

Have sown any seeds
We're sick of being your fools
What the fuck is this?
What the fuck are we really talking about?

It's nothing new
We see right through
A desertion of any true belief in creating real equality for all
To many times they get away

But now it's time to make them pay
It's time to enforce the actions we're fighting for
What are they thinking?
Who are they thinking for?
A desertion of any true belief in what this started for
