

You try your best to tell the rest,
That all we have worked for is some kind of lie.
Could it be? Seems to me,
That really you'd know if you'd tried.
We try to raise issues we see as
Important for more than just a hardcore of fans,
And then just maybe our 'scene' can still be
Growing stronger.

You said it makes you feel uneasy,
But I think it could make us so much stronger.
You seem to think it's all so easy,
Welcome to the real world,
'Cause we're not here to please you.

Back in the days when,
When we were having fun,
Was it because it was something new?
Or just so you could say you had done?
Now you stand here and try to say
That what we've done is wrong,
But there's more to revolution than a
Meeting in a pub.

You said it makes you feel uneasy,
But I think it could make us so much stronger.
You seem to think it's all so easy,
Welcome to the real world,
'Cause we're not here to please you.

Welcome to the real world!

You try your best to tell the rest,
That all we have worked for is some kind of lie.
Could it be? Seems to me,
That really you'd know if you'd tried.
'Cause we try to raise issues we see as
Important for more than just a hardcore of fans,
And then just maybe we can still be
Growing stronger.

You said it makes you feel uneasy,
But I think it could make us so much stronger.
You seem to think it's all so easy,
Welcome to the real world,
'Cause we're not here to please you.

Why waste our time? (Why waste our time?)
Why waste our time?
Why waste our time? (Why waste our time?)
Why waste our time?
