

There's no room for sides, divided is all we'll be Yeah we've made mistakes but mistakes we have learnt from Just cos it's in a song, don't mean it can't be wrong
I'm just another thinker looking for some answers
Yeah I'm young, I may have got it wrong
But at least I can admit, react and move forward
You'll twist inside, fearing damage to your pride
But pride is a belief in yourself worked, conceived over time
There's no room for sides,
I'm not the first to say that your pride divides
