

Picture Of You

Captain Everything!

Picture of you, is all I have beside me
I can see your face, but I can't touch your body
Now I'm missing out on something good
I can't seem to get the message through (2x)
Don't wait for me cause I can't promise anything
And I don't wanna disappoint you,
But I know I will eventually (2x)
Picture of you, in my head reminds me
Something else, that we both will always see
Now I'm missing out on something good
I can't seem to get the (message) message through (2x)
Don't wait for me cause I can't promise anything
And I don't wanna disappoint you,
But I know I will eventually (2x)
Picture of you, it's all I have beside me
I can see your face, but I can't touch your body
Now I'm missing out on something good
I can't seem to get the (message) message through (2x)
Don't wait for me cause I can't promise anything
And I don't wanna disappoint you,
But I know I will eventually (2x)
