

Buried Dreams

Carcass

Welcome, it's a world of hate
Smothered, by the soils of fate
Your life of buried dreams

Welcome, to a world of pain
Bitterness your only wealth
-Rubbed in your face
The sands of time kicked in your face

When life's chances are lost
When aspirations are squashed
When all hope is gone
When expectations are quashed
...All you need is hate
When self esteem is lost

When ambition is mourned
When life's chances are lost
When aspirations are squashed
When expectations are quashed
When all hope is gone
When self esteem is lost
When ambition is mourned
...All you need is hate

In futility, for self preservation
We all need someone
-Someone to hate

(1st lead - Steer)

(2nd lead - Amott)

Welcome to a world of hate

When aspirations are squashed
When all hope is gone
When life's chances are lost
When expectations are quashed
When self esteem is lost
When ambition is mourned
