

Niobe

Caribou

I fall so far, I fall so far
And every moment, everything we used to share (I fall so far)
Will she be waiting when I call, will she be there? (I fall so far)
And every moment, every thought that passes by Only reminds me of the heart it must have tried

Niobe... Niobe, Niobe

I fall so far, I fall so far
I fall so far, I fall so far

Niobe... Niobe, Niobe
