Simplicity Hurts

Carina Round

Drop me off in the desert
For a while
Such hard working minds
Make love easy to deny

Simplicity hurts
Take love for what it's worth
Simplicity hurts
Take love, take love

It's not complicated
Just hard sometimes
How long have you waited
For the one who can truly recognize?

Simplicity hurts
Take love for what it's worth
Simplicity hurts

When devices of protection
Take me further from my love
When everything I had
Or thought I knew is burned

I learn to take love, take love
Take love in return
