

The Secret of Drowning

Carina Round

I know the secret of drowning
Is to stay calm and not panic
I know the secret of losing
Is to let go before you get lost
You get lost, you get lost
You get lost, you get lost

I know the secret of drowning
Is to stay calm and not panic
I know the secret of losing
Is to let go before you get lost

I know the freedom of falling
When you ask me to come
Without the parachute of "if"
I can't come quickly enough
I know to suck the air in
When you hold out your hand
And dive off the edge of the cliff
I want to

One, two, kiss you, three four, I
Lost my heart in the black light of a bar
Five, six, seven, it burns inside
Close my eyes and I'm right there where you are Eight, nine, ten, I lose you again
Memories made in a heartbeat like
Cigarette burns in a carpet

I know the secret of drowning
Is to stay calm and not panic
I know the secret of losing
Is to let go before you get lost
You get lost, you get lost

One, two, love, one, two...
