

Weird Dream

Carina Round

Are you still sitting still in the place i left you ? teasing from your eyes the tears that you could not let through

No i didn't cry no i didn't cry when i woke up without you Tearing from my mind tearing from my mind splinters of whats left of the truth.

I didn't want to have just didn't want to have to didn't want to have to ask

least of all people you

I have longed to be the one, tried to push it up through but my lock won't come undone makes me just a statue break down the door
rip up every floorboard seep into the cracks light into the blackness its all i've been dying for

I can't even see you from here
I can't even see you from here
