Me And My Broken Heart

Carl Smith

We were waiting at the church we watched and saw the weddin' st art As the organ played we stood there and prayed just me and my br oken heart So can't you see that you have done to me oh foolish foolish pr ide You brought tears and sorrow too an untrue heart that never cri ed I saw the sunshine of my life who once I know just worshipped m e Standing by another's side and soon his bride she'll be I bowed my head in grief and shame as I felt the teardrops star t But as the organ played we stood there and prayed just me and m y broken heart