Bandit Of Love

Carlene Carter

He's a heat in the night A dust in the wind He stacks the deck right So he's sure to win He's just an illusion A master of confusion One of those losers That always wins

R :Don't lay down beside him
'Cause when you reach to find him
He'll be gone
The song he was singin'
He's a hell-raisin' angel
And a heaven-sent devil
He cannot be trusted with love

He's a song you can't forget
Once you sing it
Like the money you bet
You'll probably regret it
He's an answered prayer
A childish dare
And a fool-hearty outlaw
Who's just passing through

R :Don't lay down beside him
'Cause when you reach to find him
He'll be gone
The song he was singin'
He's a hell-raisin' angel
And a heaven-sent devil
He cannot be trusted with love

Keeps his hat on his head His hand on his heart His boots by the bed While he studies his heart His truth is deceivin' Stays for the leavin' He's a bandit of love A collector of hearts

R :Don't lay down beside him
'Cause when you reach to find him
He'll be gone
The song he was singin'
He's a hell-raisin' angel
And a heaven-sent devil
He cannot be trusted with love

He cannot be trusted with love No he cannot be trusted with love He cannot be trusted with love
