The Winding Stream

Carlene Carter

Oh, give to me a winding stream, it must not be too wide Where waving leaves from maple trees do meet from either side The water must be deep enough to float a small canoe With no one else but you

Do not disturb my waking dream, the splendor of that winding st ream

Flower in my canoe, his eyes, they looked me through That someone there with golden hair is very much like you

The sparkling trout beneath the bank does leave his hiding plac

Kingfisher from the bough above so eager to give chase The spreading branches overhead, the sunlight peeping through Reminding me of you

Do not disturb my waking dream, the splendor of that winding st ream

Flower in my canoe, his eyes, they looked me through That someone there with golden hair is very much like you
