

Still Too Blue

Carly Goodwin

I don't mean to hold back when you kiss me
I know you can feel me almost pull away
Right now I'm like a flower in the garden
Left to wither in the desert of heartbreak

There's a cold wind blowing
Straight from a heart that was untrue
And If I don't feel warm when you hold me
It's cause I'm still too blue

It's not fair to you what I'm doing
I should just move on and forget
I need your love to help me let go
But it ain't been long enough yet

There's a cold cold wind still blowing
Straight from a heart that was untrue
And If I don't feel warm when you hold me
It's cause I'm still too blue

And If I don't feel warm when you hold me
It's cause I'm still too blue
It's cause I'm still too blue
