

Breaking Boundaries

Carnal Forge

I can't believe what I am hearing you make my ears bleed so bad I can see right thru your lies I stay and listen to what you are saying

Just empty words, made up stuff from your fantasy worlds, I got eyes, with them I can see thru just about anything

So far, so good, say what?
- you're just acting like a fucking fool
So far, so good, say what?
- I will deliver, I will maintain

I'm sane enough to make my own decisions, don't need any rules I have my own, and I break them time after time

A mad dog in progress fulfilling my life i've been on the right track since day one don't need to change my way of life, not ever gonna stay the same, I will remain

So far, so good, say what?
you're just acting like a fucking fool
So far, so good, say what?
I will deliver, I will maintain

Whatever comes in my way, I embrace it take it with me on my journey thru life defending yourself with so worn-out cliché you say you are nothing, I say you are everything you ever wanted to be

You should try to be true to yourself let your soul and heart guide you don't let your dreams just be dreams follow the leader: follow your heart

Just empty words, made-up stuff from your fantasy worlds, i've got eyes, with them I can see thru just about anything
gonna stay the same, I will remain

So far, so good, say what?
you're just acting like a fucking fool
So far, so good, say what?
I will deliver, I will maintain
