

Let Me Bleed

Carnal Forge

Smashed my head into the cold concrete I tried to tear myself apart overheated mind, there's nothing more to gain you revel in my rage, you want to see me insane

Let me throw away the pain, let me bleed to death let my soul burn,
you know I never learn how to reject my inner thoughts

So secret, so silent, so confused living my life without a cause take away my life flame please let me die

I tried to stay alive for too long my furious mind was all set on fire so quiet on the outside, total hell inside no more rebel, no more fuzz

Let me throw away the pain, let me bleed to death
let my soul burn,
you know I never learn how to reject my inner thoughts

living my life without a cause
take away my life flame
please let me die
