Since the beginning I've been thinking of a way.

Since the beginning I knew I couldn't change.

I knew from day one that this never had a chance.

Its all fake, Its all in the past.

Partial understanding of my forced identity; I'm dead inside an d it's all I'll ever be.

I gave up everything, I gave it all away.

Partial understanding of my forced identity; all we have is fal se hope.
