Sweet Baby James

Carole King

There is a young cowboy, he lives on the range. His horse and h is cattle are his only companions. He works in the saddle and he sleeps in the canyons, waiting fo r summer, his pastures to change. And as the moon rises he sits by his fire, thinking about women and glasses of beer. And closing his eyes as the doggies retire, he sings out a song which is soft but it's clear As if maybe someone could hear... Goodnight you moon light ladies, rock-a-bye sweet baby James. Deep greens and blues are the colors I choose, won't you let me go down in my dreams? And rock-a-bye sweet baby James. Now the first of December was covered with snow And so was the turnpike from Stockbridge to Boston. Though the Berkshires seemed dreamlike on account of that frost ing, With ten miles behind me and ten thousand more to go. There's a song that they sing when they take to the highway, A song that they sing when they take to the sea, A song that they sing of their home in the sky, maybe you can b elieve it if it helps you to sleep,

But singing works just fine for me.

So, goodnight you moon light ladies, rock-abye sweet baby James. Deep greens and blues are the colors I choose, won't you let me go down in my dreams? And rock-a-bye sweet baby James.
