Walk With Me (I'll Be Your Companion)

Carole King

I am me--who are you
I'm on my way to somewhere through tomorrow
If that's where you're going, too
Would you care to walk with me today
Living for the moment--feelin' what I feel
Nowhere in particular to go
And nothing to conceal

Walk with me--I'll be your companion
I may not have an awful lot to say
You can be anything you want to
And anytime you want to walk away--it's okay

Chances come--fortunes go

And I don't know what lies beyond the crossroad

Since I'm tryin' to travel light

I got no past or future on my mind

Through all my reflections--one thing is plain to see

Knowin' I am not alone

Means more than anything to me
