

Busy, busy, I'm so busy, I've got no time
For you.

Sleazy, sleazy, you say I'm sleazy
For all the things I put you thru.

Angry, angry, now your angry
Sick of all the games were playin'.

Sleepy, sleepy, I'm so sleepy
Tired of all the things you're sayin'.

I'm so sorry, excuse me for livin'
I didn't know you were a pyscho

Wasted, wasted, I get so wasted
Sometimes I can't even get up the stairs.
Stupid, stupid, you say I'm stupid
For telling you not to be scared of me.
Frightened, frightened, now your frightened
While I'm dyin', I'm dyin', I'm slowly dyin',
'Cause you won't leave me alone.

I'm so sorry, excuse me for livin'
I didn't know you were a pyscho

Salute me, greet me so glad to meet me
Then you say I'm such a mess
Well, sue me, che me beebopaloo me
Thanks so much, now go get dressed.
Preach me, teach me so glad you reached
Me
Before you found me, I was a waste
You found me, bound me, rolled all around
Me
Now your gone and I got faced

I'm so sorry, excuse me for livin'
I didn't know you were a pyscho
