

After A Kiss

Carolyn Dawn Johnson

Here we are
On different sides
Of the fence
These angry words
Just don't make any sense
It doesn't really matter
Who's right or wrong
I'd rather hold you
Than argue all night long
I'm gonna walk
Out that door
And walk right back in
Straight to your arms
Start all over again
'Cause you and I know
Our love's bigger than this
Let's talk about it
After a kiss

Funny how it seems
We hurt the ones
We love
Tell me now
That you agree
We've said enough
Baby, we were laughing
An hour ago
Can we back up and
Make up and let it go?

I'm gonna walk
Out that door
And walk right back in
Straight to your arms
Start all over again
'Cause you and I know
Our love's bigger than this
Let's talk about it
After a kiss

It doesn't take much
To turn this around
If we both know
Our hearts are in it
Baby, your touch has
Never let me down
So wait right here
Just a minute

I'm gonna walk
Out that door
And walk right back in
Straight to your arms
Start all over again
'Cause you and I know
Our love's bigger than this
Let's talk about it

After a kiss
