Room With A View

Carolyn Dawn Johnson

They gave you a corner room on the fifth floor The city lights were like candy to a kid in a store Like a king you'd lay in your bed so state fully So thankful they gave you a room with scenery

You always were so healthy, so full of life So seeing you so helpless just didn't seem right How you kept your head so high I'll never know I guess you knew you had a better place to go Now

You've got a room with a view A window to the world You always had your sights set high And now that you're gone Your memory lives on And I see you smiling in my mind With angels as visitors dropping by Your room with a view

I'll always miss you
I'll always feel the loss
I have to remind myself that you're better off
I gotta believe even through these tears of mine
Wherever you are there's a sun that always shines

And you've got a room with a view A window to the world You always had your sights set high And now that you're gone Your memory lives on And I see you smiling in my mind With angels as visitors dropping by Your room with a view

With angels as visitors dropping by Your room with a view
