

Mistakes

Carousel Kings

I'm floating downstream
Alone in my sleep
With my heart in my hands
And weights chained to my feet
I've sunk to the bottom
And now that I'm down here
It's not quite as bad as I've dreamed

If only I could be free from reality
If only I could be free

I'll throw away my mistakes with the past
I'm just as big as the shadow I cast

Forget about me
You swim underneath
Underneath a sea, a sea of faded dreams
I've sunk to the bottom
And now that I'm down here
It's not quite as bad as I'd dreamed

If only I could be free from reality
If only I could be free
It's getting harder to deal with the motions
It's getting harder to feel the emotion

I'll throw away my mistakes with the past
I'm just as big as the shadow I cast
I'll throw away my mistakes with the past
I'm just as big as the shadow I cast
