

Two Ghosts are Better Than One

Carousel Kings

So when this summer of a lifetime's winding down just know that in the end we'll all know the symmetry is true

And from the stormy streets the sky appears less seen and I will sing my pledge of a life of misery to you

Break all the ghosts out of the closet girl
No need to explain the news
I've heard it all before.

Before I knew you were a sucker
Before you had the guts to show

Break all the ghosts out of the closets boy,
no need to explain the news
I've heard it all before.

Before I knew you were a sucker.
Relax and let it go.

So when this winter of a lifetime's winding up Just know that
This is my life
And I know this is who I am
