

Everything Starts Again

Carpark North

Everything starts again
Waiting to rise again
'Cause I'm leaving the city
Leaving everything behind

Fights were not hard to find
And we took it too far this time
So I'm leaving the city
Leaving my life behind

And there will never be another you and I

It's time to leave
I'm really not sorry
I was sinking in the water
Drowning under water

Oh, but now it's time to believe
I'm really not sorry
It's only words but words do hurt
so goodbye.

There's nothing worth saving here
There's nothing left to fear
I am leaving the city
Leaving everything we had

All the buildings I'm passing by Reflecting the truth and I
I am leaving the city
Leaving every lie behind

And there will never be another you and I

It's time to leave
I'm really not sorry
I was sinking in the water
Drowning under water

Oh, but now it's time to believe
I'm really not sorry
It's only words but words do hurt
so goodbye

(Ooooooh)
(Ooooooh)
(Ooooooh)
(Ooooooh)
It's only words but words do hurt
(Ooooooh)
(Ooooooh)
(Ooooooh)
(Ooooooh)

Everything starts again
Waiting to rise again
And I'm leaving the city

I'm leaving the city

It's time to leave
I'm really not sorry
I was sinking in the water
Drowning under water

Oh, but now it's time to believe
I'm really not sorry
It's only words but words do hurt
so goodbye

Yeah

(It's time to believe
I'm really not sorry)
