

I and You

Carpark North

From other worlds
Of curves and curls
You crashed right in to me

A trail so long
A scent so strong
I can't deny I'm flying

Finally it hurts
Like the tales they've told me
With my nerves outside
And you within me
Suddenly it burns
Now your lips have caught me
You and I
I and you

Into your eyes
I climb inside
I dare to touch your skin

I crouch I crawl
I taste the walls
My sweat, your moves
Today we merge

Finally it hurts
Like the tales they've told me
With my nerves outside
And you within me
Suddenly it burns
Now your lips have caught me
You and I
I and you
You and I
I and you

Finally it hurts
Like the tales they've told me
With my nerves outside
And you within me
Suddenly it burns
Now your lips have caught me
You and I
I and you
