

In the Dark

Carpark North

In the dark, you will always find her searching
Her sister died in vain
Oh, so strong, behinds her eyes she keeps her sorrow
But I can tell she's sad

Memory, she will never really grasp it
She's waltzing on alone
Oh, dear God, promise me there is a heaven
I beg you're there today
Someday she'll be okay
