

Just Human

Carpark North

I remember why you made me write this song
Your never ending questions hit me on and on
I did right to walk and just leave you there
'Cause no one could stand your fear of fear

I am not your Jesus
I can't save you from yourself
Not a thing you touched remains today
I broke up with you 'cause you didn't change - me

Yeah! Yes it's human
It's just human
You noticed
Yeah! Yeah just human
Did you notice?
Damn right

I got tired dodging bullets all the time
I took the easy way and left it all behind
Not a thing we had remains today
Was it always ment to be this way

[Metallic:]
Yeah. Yes it's human
Yes it's human
You noticed
[Metallic]

Yeah! Yes it's human
It's just human
You noticed
Yeah! You're just human
Did you notice?
Damn right!

Shut up!

Shut up! Shut up!
