

Renegade

Carpark North

Shout with me and hear the revolution beating. Drums leading to wards a new world. Tear apart all maps cause they will only lea d us to where we shouldn't be. We break the sides of all new wo rlds

Everywhere I turn I see the flames. It starts to burn but it's okay, cause I've been waiting for today to start this riot. Fee l the ground start to shake all around, the world awakes to the sound of my earthquake when I become a, a renegade

This is a riot, I'm a renegade I can't keep quiet, I'm a renegade

Start breathing and listen to the drums beating. They're leadin g towards a new world. I look at my clock tic-toc, ticking. Thi s is the life we're given. So we take it and make it worthy
