

Tonight

Cartel

Hey, oh, this is another one
Honey, but it's not the same you say
How could I ask you?
Oh, c-c-come on let me ask you

Say, say it just once
Till there's nothing left to be said
Give me all, give me all
How could ever ask of you?
And it's more than I can stand

So maybe tonight, see it for the first time
And it shows, yeah, it shows
Just give me tonight, see it for the first time
And it shows, yeah, it shows

So maybe this is asking
Too much of you
But I'm no mood this time
And I'm thinking 'bout making you mine

Oh, please just say this once
And there's nothing else to be said
And it's all, baby all I can think of when I'm with you
And it's more than I can stand

So maybe tonight, see it for the first time
And it shows, yeah, it shows
Just give me tonight, see it for the first time
And it shows, yeah it shows

Well, is this love?
Is it now? Is it now? Is this love?
Say it now, come on say it now
And it's more than I can stand

So maybe tonight, see it for the first time
And it shows, yeah, it shows
Just give me tonight, see it for the first time
And it shows, yeah, it shows
