Can't Stop the Rain

How, how am I supposed to feel When everything surrounding me Is nothing but a fake disguise I don't know, I don't know where I belong It's time for me to carry on I'll say goodbye

I can't stop the rain from fallin' I'm drownin in these tears I cry Since you left without a warning I face the dawn with sleepless eyes No I can't go on When clouds are pushin' down on me, boy I can't stop, I can't stop the rain From fallin

So, tell me where I went wrong I'm stuck inside a dream long gone It's hard to reveal the truth Your love, Is nothing but a bitter taste It's better if I walk away, Away from you

I can't stop the rain from fallin' Im drownin in these tears I cry Since you left without a warning I face the dawn with sleepless eyes No I can't go on When clouds are pushin' down on me, boy I can't stop, I can't stop the rain From fallin Cascada
