

Breaks My Heart

Casey Donahew Band

I said what the hell
I'm goin out tonight
Maybe head downtown with some friends
And turn out the lights
Never dreamed I'd see you here
Out with someone new
Its too late to break and run
And I cant believe were through

Cause it breaks my heart
To see you here with him out on that floor
Its just not fair what you're doin
Tryin to settle up the score
And tonights gonna hurt when I'm dreaming
About you and that smile that you wore
Its not about winning,
But I cant take losing anymore

Its funny how time
Has a way of bringing pain around
And did you tell him
That I'm the one that burned you down?
Its ok to ignore me
Pretend like you don't know
I probably deserve this all
But I pray to God that it don't show

Well I'm not sure how
I'm supposed to watch you walk away
You wont think of me
But I'll never forget today

Its not about winning
But I can't take losing anymore
No it's not about winning...
