Can't Go Back

Casey Donahew Band

Well I said things I didn't mean
And you threw down that diamond ring
Turned around with no regrets
Just like we never met
Saw that ring skip across the floor
Said I don't love you anymore

I never thought leaving would be this hard
Standing out front in the yard
I turn around and watch
While the lights in the house all fade to black
Realize you can't go back

I still love you this I know
And it's so hard to turn and go
I still see you in my dreams
And I still want you to wear that ring
If nothing ever changes
Then life just stays the same
And I'm the only one to blame
