

I'd Give Anything

Casey Donahew Band

Well, I woke up today
To an empty bed
A spot beside me where you used to lay
Was empty as my head
And I found you in the closet
With a suitcase full of clothes
You said you'd had enough of our late nights
Gonna leave and head back home

Well, what could I say to you?
When you've already made up your mind
Half these years that we spent together
Ain't nothin' but wasted time

My love won't bring her back
My pride won't beg her to stay
Now she's packin' up her things
Leavin' Dallas today
In a cloud of smoke
Cannot tell her what she means to me
But if I could have her back
Well, I'd give anything

So, I pour myself some coffee
I stare at the wall
I wonder to myself
Well, did she love me at all?
And I'm as clueless as can be
And I don't know where to turn
Lost in all directions
I guess there's nowhere I can run

My love won't bring her back
My pride won't beg her to stay
Now she's packin' up her things
Leavin' Dallas today
In a cloud of smoke
Cannot tell her what she means to me
But if I could have her back
Then I'd give anything

So, I wait by the telephone
I hope that it will ring
I'm hopin' you've had a second thought
Or a dream of you and me

My love won't bring her back
My pride won't beg her to stay
Now she's packin' up her things
Leavin' Dallas today
In a cloud of smoke
Cannot tell her what she means to me
But if I could have her back

Oh, if i could have her back
