

Let It Take Over You

Casey Donahew Band

Whats goin on in my head
These three words I just said and what is the deal with the way that I feel when you walk in a room.
Well I guess I'm falling apart, She's got the keys to my heart, and though I long for her touch, cause I love her so much please be my girl.
And now I wanna feel you by me,
now I wanna what you see.
Now when you look in my eyes,
do you see any lies, why much you run?
Has something begun, Let it take over you.
Well I'll give you all that I've got,
and I wont be what I'm not.
I'll let my passion unfold and ask you, that I hold, if you'll give me a chance, there's nothing more I can say,
I love you more everyday, and I know its for real cause your kisses i steal every chance that i get,
And now I wanna feel you by me,
now I wanna know what you see.
Now when you look in my eyes,
do you see any lies, why much you run?
Has something begun?
Let it take over you.
Because its sure taken me,
I was blind now I see Why must you run has something begun,
Let's have some fun,
Let it take over you
Just let it take over you Just let it take over,
Just let it take over you
