

Bite The Dust

Casey Jones

Every smile you'll break
Every break you'll ever take
Suddenly i see how you've changed
I'll tell you that i'm not the same
Every X you wore is another X you tore
Don't tell me that you're the same
Don't forget you've changed
Look me in the eyes
And i'll tell you
"you are nothing"
Look me in the eyes
Cause i told you
"you are nothing"
