

Dead Kid? Try A Nice Memorial Tattoo

Casey Jones

I wish I took you away from your problems and your worthless life.
I would have forced you to leave the pills, the bottle behind.
I just wanted you to be as free as me and see the world the way
it was made to be.
Now six feet deep and nowhere to go.
No life.
No future.
And no one to hold.
Twenty years of life shut down by substances of waste.
No laughs.
No smiles.
Only tears of shame.
Dead.
You threw your life away.
Dead.
I wish I took you away
