Hammer The Nails

Casey Jones

When will you see The words I scream are reality Pure, clean and free I'm not these things, they are me Growing up and growing old Some will try to pull me down But I won't let them change my ways I will always be this free And nothing you will say Will keep me from my ways And nothing you can do Will ever change me into you I live my life for me not you I'm these words so fuck you Straight edge is me Until the day I die
