

Together we're screaming

Cashless Society

Together we're screaming for a better world.
About the things, nobody is fighting for.
Our attitude is not-not like yours.

You're close minded like everybody else.
What do you see just when you look at me?
Yeah I know, I got the wrong way to go-
Wrong way to go!

I can't understand that you always close your eyes.
Are you blind or won't you face reality.
I'm sad to see that your mind isn't free-your mind isn't free
