

Whirlwind Soldier

Cassandra Wilson

we speak in separate words we love in differeent colors our love is madness how can it be?
this is a mystery to me

you broke into my world shattering all the lies that I'd heard all my life you were a whirlwind bending the trees, bending the trees I am a summer breeze

can I ride with you?
I know that the road is long
can I ride with you?
I know I will be strong until the journey's end we are forever friends, you and I

you were a whirlwind bending the trees, bending the trees I'll be a summer breeze
