Did you really think that you would keep a secret from me?
When I know you like the back of my hand, come on now
I can tell when you're on the low tryna hide something
Tryna hide something, You can't hide nothing
I been watching you for a minute, I already know
Whatchu doing, you can't hide it from me, come on now
I can tell when you're on the low tryna hide something
Tryna hide something, You can't hide nothing

I'll cut you off in a minute, Boy if you make me
You'll never catch me asleep, I'm awake baby
I'm awake baby, You can't front on me
You can save all your tired lies for someone who cares
I be seeing right through em, No time to waste now
You will never catch me asleep, I'm awake homie
I'm awake homie, You can't front on me

You should get familiar
You got a hundred stories,
You be fake thuggin'
If you think I'm believin you?
You must be buggin'
I'm like a fortune teller
I can see em comin'
If he's runnin games,
Ima keep em runnin
The day you play me
That'll be the day you're gone
You can front now
But later on...

Ima call you out, Ima call you out
Oh oh
Ima call you out, Ima call you out
