

She Falls

Cast

The warmth of the sun, it feels healing
Warming the cold in my mind
An ocean of Space sends me reeling
Easing my passage through time
Leaving it all behind

When she is gone she is gone
And when she just falls she just falls
Far too long

She just falls way beyond
She just falls where she belongs

Cool of the shade feels relieving
Cracks that appear in my hide
The key to the day is withstanding
The Kingdoms that fall and rise
Leaving them all behind

When she is gone she is gone
And when she falls she just falls
Far too long

She just falls way beyond
She just falls where she belongs

Cool of the shade
Cool of the shade in my mind
Warmth of the sun
Warmth of the sun in my eyes
Falls way beyond – she just falls she belongs

Falls she is gone
