You cut me deep, but now i'm gonna see you weep, yeah this broken man is gonna do the best he can, yeah

I'll see you pay, before I give you my heart baby I'll do without There'll come a day
when I'll smash your heart
and then turn away

You played with me like a toy and a little baby After I broke you just didn't want to know, yeah

I'll see you pay, before I give you my heart baby I'll do without There'll come a day
and then turn away

My time will come, and you'll know when it's begun, yeah

You'll know because you're gonna be just where i was, yeah

I'll see you pay, before I give you my heart baby I'll do without There'll come a day
and then turn away
