

The Ordeal

Catafalque

Don't heed the whips
flogging your back
Think of what you didn't do although you had the chance Don't let them get you Think about if you see the truth or not...

If you feel death's cold wings on your face
If you feel loneliness, the time has come to face,
to use the ace up your sleeve and to fight the circumstances, to get what's yours back

Close yourself to what brings sorrow Don't feel the pain they deal Lock them far away from you Don't heed the pain in your soul

Turn your back on everyone
There is only you in this life Think of what you couldn't do when there was
Don't heed the whips
flogging your back!
