

Astral Tears

Catamenia

When watching the night black sky
Shadows of stars dancing their ride
I fall where is no place, no time
Everything seems like a endless night

I can't feel no pain, no fear
All the former leave, disappear
Nothing I see and nothing I hear
All that's there, just the astral tears

I sense where's all our fears
Despite I can't feel, no see
I know where's all our tears
Going astral, deep inside me

The reason to stay is so great
Turning back is way too late
Beast's claws are like a spears
All that's here, just the astral tears
