

Kingdom of Legions

Catamenia

Through the damned halls of frozen north
I ride with silver dragons of Drakal to make despair and spread sorrow
'cause then my dark kingdom will come.

I gathered with legions of thunder in mountain of fallen stars where no-man have been losted and where evil takes it`s form...dragon.

God`s of war...
masters of despair...
dragonlords of the skies...
rulers of mighty kingdom...

In crimson morning`s mist we battle against whirlwinds of east.

God`s of war...
masters of despair...
dragonlords of the skies...
rulers of mighty kingdom...

Way to perfect victory is bloody armies fall under the king`s name everything destroyed from the legions path which is just forwarding towards...
