

Doomed Steps

Cataract

Go!

Forgotten souls and doomed existence remain in the mud.
Progress and gain lead us to the oblivion.
Flusive safety submitted to us by this system.
A perfidious quiet and tranquillity surrounds us all.

Day by day, raise the pace.
Day by day, distend the limits.

Simplicity of the being we have unlearned.
Basic pillars of foundation we have lost.
Deep hollow pits will be dumped out of the soil.
Massive ditches are torn apart silt up all.

Day by day, raise the pace.
Day by day, distend the limits.

Progress and gain lead us to the oblivion.
Progress and gain lead us to the oblivion.

Forgotten souls and doomed existence remain in the mud.
Progress and gain lead us to the oblivion.
Flusive safety submitted to us by this system.
A perfidious quiet and tranquillity surrounds us all.

Day by day, raise the pace.
Day by day.
