

Skies Grow Black

Cataract

Drifting from the living the skies grow black Truth's now bleed ing pure blood of the lack Beast of possessions licking your blood From burned stumps thei r future's cut Denial of Freedom, denial of salvation, denial of life for their salvatio n Dominion's been revealed and Erased all cultural breathing Slavery will take control of your chained soul! Of your soul!
Modern war is not just about a conflict which has to be solved.
Todays "leading" nations Use their destructive war machinery to achieve power and politi cal influences for future Economical actions. No matter what the consequences are for the freedom and will of the People who live in the regions of interest. And reality strikes again.
