

Tongues Spitting Hate

Cataract

Tongues spitting hate
Words of lies
Pull the strings around human neck
Blades drowned in poison the black skies,
ressurecting hope for wars and bloodshed

The seed of damnation your highest goal,
trivializing illusion, that fall from the cliff

Tongues spitting hate
Words of lies
Pull the strings around human neck
Blades drowned in poison the black skies,
ressurecting hope for wars and bloodshed

The seed of damnation your highest goal,
trivializing illusion, that fall from the cliff

Walk your own, reality
Preached your faith spilled with hate!
Spilled with hate!

The seed of damnation your highest goal,
Preached your faith spilled, spilled with hate

Machine gun fire penetrating cold bodies,
Your life for shattered glass stuck into your flesh!
