

Arabian Derby

Catatonia

I never feared the rain Until you turned to me and said you'd failed again
It makes a perfect day so lame And leads us halfway to nowhere

And so the players have changed Soon we'll memorise the names But somehow something's never quite the same Still we'll stake a claim, you can count us in again

And everyone's a winner baby Hedge your bets,
get set and maybe We could be the first
to cross the line

Get up, get set, get ready get high, get low, get even
'Cos we're living in inimitable style
Chasing the ultimate prize

You'd make a fine millionaire It's only natural to celebrate But someone's got to be there to pay And we never get there

So take some time on our own
We burn enough alone Close but still not fully grown Pulling marrow from a bone But there's no turning back, so count us in again

And everyone's a winner baby
Hedge your bets,
get set and maybe
We could be the first
to cross the line

Everyone's a winner baby

Going back to the old house the Marigolds just go to show that some of us should never have left home But see I'm still counting Another flash in the pan A cheap and instant forming tan it seems to grown on me

Taking inches from a mile (No change there) But I'm all for throwing it on the line

'Cos everyone's a winner baby Hedge your bets,

Oh everyone's a winner baby (baby)
Everyone's a winner baby (baby)
