Black Robed Avenger

Cathedral

Black robed avenger Rides upon a white horse through my mind In search of love he finds A spectral planet lost in space and time He dreams of paradise Suspended animation greets his eyes Across barren deserts, a universal wilderness he seeks Palaces crumbled Sceletons remain of fallen kings Bleak storms and hurricanes He braved ti discover loves atomic grave He found salvation Within a void of loneliness and pride The land of selfish man A frozen world in winter's hands A weary traveller Stares into the heart of human kind Souls of planet earth Entombed inside a giant ball of ice
